This study analyzed the cultural values which parents and teachers in the Division of Albay: Its implication to education for the school year 1986-1987.

This study is a descriptive survey which utilized the questionnaire and documentary analysis as the main tools for gathering data. Informal interviews and observation were also employed to further support whatever data were gleaned from the questionnaire. Respondents of this study came from the 17 elementary schools utilizing 150 teachers and 150 parents of Grade I to VI pupils enrolled during the school year 1986-1987 in Malinao District, Division of Albay.

The data and information needed were collected through the use of a questionnaire. Computation of percentage, weighted mean and spearman rank correlation coefficient were made as bases for the analysis of the data. The obtained p was tested for significance at .05 and .01 levels of significance.