AUTHOR: RINGPIS, EVANGELINE

TITLE: Attitudes of the Division of Abra Towards Family Planning: An Analysis.

Year: 1976

Acc. No. 660071

Abstract: This study attempted to analyze and describe the attitudes of elementary grade teachers of the division of Abra towards family planning. Specifically, it sought to answer the following questions: (1) what is the general attitude of teachers of the division of Abra towards family planning? (2) How do the following effect the attitudes of the teacher towards family planning: a. civil status b. sex c. number of children, d. age and e. religion? (3) What attitudes do the teachers have towards: a. in-service training for teachers in family planning? b. courses in family planning for couples before marriage? c. physician services before practicing birth control? d. the different methods of contract emption? and e. legalizing abortion?