This study was conducted to assess the efficiency of the PNP personnel of Metro Bangued province of Abra in crime solution for the calendar year 2011-2015.

The descriptive method was used, wherein data were gathered using a checklist. The data were tabulated, analyzed and interpreted utilizing frequency count, percentage and ranking.

The study revealed that most of the respondents are in their middle adulthood stage with their age ranging 31-35 and 41-45. Majority of the respondents are male and married. As to the educational attainment, respondents are degree holders, Roman Catholic, and with the rank of PO2. On designation, most of the respondents are given the designation of Patrol Officer. On length of service, having 6-10 years as a number of service in the government. Majority of the respondents undergone Public Safety Basic Recruit Course.

The study also showed the general nature of crimes committed as to index crime and non-index crimes in Metro Bangued as shown by the actual statistics for the last five years. The study reveals that non-index crime has the highest frequency than that of index crimes.

The logistics used by the PNP personnel of Metro Bangued in crime prevention were mobility, communication equipment, computers, firearms, handcuffs and vest are adequate.

The level of performance of the PNP personnel of Metro Bangued claimed that the performances of PNP in their respective places are very good based on the Performance Governance System (PGS) of PNP.
The status of the crimes committed in Metro Bangued were also presented. It reveals that from 2011 to 2015, the PNP personnel of Metro Bangued are becoming more efficient in solving crimes in their area of responsibility.

The crime solution efficiency of the PNP personnel of Metro Bangued for the period of five years from 2011 to 2015 is improving.